Admissions Application - Character and Fitness Amendment Request

Student Name: _____ Anticipated Graduation Year: _____

Net ID: _____

Your admissions application to Cornell Law School included the following character and fitness questions:

- Have you ever been the subject of disciplinary proceedings or been warned, placed on probation, dropped, expelled, been asked, advised, or permitted to withdraw, suspended for academic, nonacademic, or any other reasons, by any college, university, graduate school or professional school you have attended, or are any such proceedings pending?
- Have you ever, either as an adult or a juvenile, been cited, ticketed, arrested, taken into custody, charged with, indicted, convicted or tried for, or pleaded guilty to, the commission of any felony or misdemeanor or the violation of any law, or been the subject of any juvenile delinquency or youthful offender proceeding? Traffic violations that occurred more than ten years before the filing of this application need not be reported, with the exception of alcohol or drug-related traffic violations, which must be reported in all cases irrespective of when they occurred. Do not report parking violations.

Your failure to disclose one or more character and fitness-related issues has been brought to the attention of the Cornell Law School Dean of Students, another administrator, or faculty member. The Admissions Committee and the Administrative Committee will conduct a review of the previously undisclosed matter(s) in accordance with the Cornell Law School Student Handbook.
