

Note: FallTerm Instruction for all students ends Thursday, November 30th. Final examinations begin Tuesday, December 5th.

Reading period begins Friday, December 1st, and ends Monday, December 4th.

All exams will be using Exam4 software to type your exams, both Ithaca and NY sections. Students are reminded that it is the policy of the Law School that the exam questions and answers must be submitted on the day and hour specified. Extensions are not available for equipment failure (such as printing problems) or other delays.

Exam format:

Closed mode (CM) students may not access the internet nor their computer's hard drive during the exam.

Open Laptop (OL) students may access materials on their computer's hard drive.

Open Laptop + Network (OL&N) students may access materials on their computer's hard drive, as well as the internet.

E-Books

As students are expected to purchase their own casebooks, please be aware that the use of e-books has posed some issues in past exam cycles.

For example, if an e-book is not downloadable, you may not be able to consult it during an open-book exam. If your professor allows you to print materials during the exam but does not allow internet access, the e-book may not be accessible during the exam. Be sure to clarify with the professor about exam format early in the term, before you make your decision to use an e-book or a printed book.

Some publishers offer a print-on-demand option or extra pdf/paper copy, which may be helpful. However, keep in mind that pagination in an e-book often is different from pagination of a physical copy.

Take-home students have the same access as OL+Network.

- b. If the take-home exam is not timed, a student may suspend their work > close Exam4 > come back to the exam later and resume work. Take-home files can be re-opened and read by students after the exam has ended.
- c. IMPORTANT REMINDER: If the take-home exam is timed and you suspend the exam, it WILL NOT stop the clock.

Take-Home Examinations: Take home exams will be available from the Exam4 website unless otherwise noted. Instructions to access the site will be available on the My Exam Portal for students prior to the exam.

To All Students:

1. An examination may be deferred only if a student has examinations scheduled in direct conflict with each other, two in one day, more than two exams in the first week, three in three days (same week), or four in one week. An examination week is Monday through Friday.
2. NO examinations may be taken before the scheduled examination period.
3. Any examinations permitted to be deferred will be rescheduled by the Administrative Committee at the earliest possible examination period consistent with the rules above.
4. All requests for deferral of examinations must be submitted to the Law Registrar, using the online Exam Deferral form, on or before 12:00 noon on November 21st.
5. Students must arrive at their assigned exam room by 8:45 a.m. for a 9:00 a.m. exam.
6. Access to notes on your computer may be used only with faculty authorized open mode Exam4 software. All other permitted materials must be in hard copy.
7. Two (2) non-legal dictionaries will be provided in each exam room for any student in that room to use.
8. Requests for relief on any other ground will be granted by the Dean of Students only. Such requests must be written and submitted to The Law Registrar on or before 12:00 noon on November 21st based on an emergency. If an emergency arises, contact the Dean of Students as soon as possible.
9. All students are reminded to check the examination schedule before finalizing travel plans. Deferrals for travel arrangements will not be granted.
10. Take-home examinations: Students with take-home examinations are reminded that it is the policy of the Law School that the exam questions and answers must be handed in the day and hour specified. Extensions are not available for equipment failure (printing problems) or other delays. The Registrar's staff will not be able to assist you in remedying problems.
11. If a student's laptop fails during the exam the student must immediately notify the proctor. The student must not turn off the laptop or attempt to do anything with Exam4. And the student must not reboot the laptop unless the proctor instructs the student to do so. The Registrar's Office with IT staff will reasonably assist to resolve the situation. The student may be required to handwrite the remainder of the exam. After the exam has concluded, an attempt may be made to retrieve any incomplete exam from the student's hard drive. If the incomplete exam cannot be retrieved within 24 hours, the Dean of Students, in consultation with the instructor, will determine remedial options, if any.
