

CLSA Bylaws

Article I - CAMPAIGN RULES. After certification by the Election Subcommittee, a candidate may campaign according to the following rules:

1. No candidate may spend more than $25.00 on their campaign. All money spent by, or on behalf of, a candidate during the campaign week which is for the purpose of influencing votes will be deemed a campaign expenditure subject to the $25.00 limit.
2. No joint campaigning is permitted. Joint campaigning includes but is not limited to joint advertising. Joint advertising is defined as any recognizable association between two (2) or more candidates appearing on a single non-verbal communication.
3. Candidates shall submit all receipts related to campaign expenditures to the Treasurer in case of an audit by the Election Subcommittee.
4. Candidates' names shall appear on all their election campaign material.
5. Candidates shall not interfere in any manner with the campaign of any other candidates, except to inform the Election Subcommittee of any potential violation of the campaign rules.
6. Candidates have the responsibility to inform the Election Subcommittee of any potential violation of the campaign rules.
7. The Election Subcommittee has discretion to impose any sanction it deems appropriate for violating the campaign rules, subject to a vote by the full Executive Board.
