LLMs:

International Student Interview Program: The Fall Session of the International Student Interview Program (ISIP) is now open. You should have received two emails regarding next steps. If you intend to participate, it is imperative that you review all information provided in these communications. The applications for the Fall Session close on October 14 at 11:59 p.m. If you have not received these emails, please let us know as soon as possible.

Mock Interview Program: As a reminder, if you are participating in the Mock Interview Program and have not yet reached out to your alumni interviewer to schedule a time to meet, please do so as soon as possible. We ask that all mock interviews be completed no later than October 16.

Fall Break Networking Opportunities: Over fall break, there are two excellent networking opportunities we encourage you to attend. On October 15, the New York City Bar Association will be hosting a Program and Reception for International LL.M. Candidates. Registration is free but please register in advance here: <https://services.nycbar.org/EventDetail?EventKey=NLI101526>. On October 16, you are invited to the Cornell Law School LL.M. Alumni & Student Mixer. Please register here: <https://support.law.cornell.edu/alumni/Events/RSVP.cfm?EventID=643>.

Fall break is also a great opportunity to meet with your network in person! If you have connected with attorneys based in NYC, consider reaching out and inviting them for a coffee chat.
