Robert and Barbara Kent Fellowship

Due date: March 22, 2027

History:
The Robert and Barbra Kent Fellowship was established by the SAIPAR Board in 2014 in honor of the late Cornell Professor Robert Kent. SAIPAR is a well-established interdisciplinary research center in Lusaka, Zambia. The Fellowship recognizes the contribution of Professor Kent to legal education in Zambia and the United States.

Opportunity:
Students awarded the Kent Fellowship will have the opportunity to intern at Nspato & Co, a full-service law firm based in Zambia. Nspato & Co has a strong focus in corporate and commercial practice. They have 8 active departments and interns will have an opportunity to work across at least 2 departments in their time in Zambia. You can find more information on the firm here: https://www.nsapato.com/

Interns will be assisted with finding housing while in Lusaka, Zambia and provided a modest stipend. In addition the firm will provide working materials such as laptops and secure credentials for those interning.

Fellowship Terms/Eligibility
The fellowship will run for eight-weeks during the general time period of mid-May to Mid-August, 2027.

Application Instructions
Please e-mail a resume, transcript and cover letter focused on this opportunity to Assistant Dean Fouad Saleet (fas75@cornell.edu) by March 22, 2027.